

Four Believers Baptized This December

A sigh of relief and blessing filled the families of the four Christians who decided to undergo water baptism this month in Novaliches Christian Fellowship Main.

“I’m glad that they finally got baptized. They are getting more consistent in their Christian growth lately,” said Sis. Julie Nueva, whose brother and in-law Andrew and Nita Alarcon were baptized on December 4.

Along with Loren Cano, the three believers professed their faith and acceptance of the Lord Jesus Christ, testifying in front of fellow Christians in NCF.

Baptism is an ordinance instituted by the Lord for all believers, proclaiming death unto sin and a new birth through salvation.

“It’s another step in her Christian life,” said Sis. Jackie De Silva, whose brother’s wife Sheena was baptized on December 11.

The NCF family extends their congratulations to the recently baptized brethren.

Baptized believers are encouraged to attend membership classes under Bro. Jay Baldonado. Salvation and water baptism are requirements for membership in Novaliches Christian Fellowship.
