

Missions to Rapu-Rapu, Albay

Sis. Divine Victorio, one of NCF's longtime workers, goes on a mission trip to the town of Rapu-Rapu, Albay. Her latest visit to the town last May 11 to 16 marks her third year of ministering to the people out there.

"I usually come every year, seemingly alone," says Sis. Divine, "but I believe that God is with me."

This visit, around nineteen children and twelve adults were evangelized, and were being followed up with the nearby local Christian congregation, where Sis. Divine shares and receives assistance.

Sis. Divine hopes that these gatherings will soon grow into a fully functional church in the vicinity. While God acts on these prayers, however, she still fulfills her service on her ministries.

