

NCF Banaba Changes Name

Three years into its operation as NCF's daughter church, NCF Banaba changed its name to NCF Greenfields. This, after Pastor Albert Salipot thought that there is much to a name, and that their new name would grant them a new identity in God that is filled with promise, hope, blessing and grace.

It is interesting to note too that they have relocated their worship center. From within the heart of Banaba, they are now renting a much bigger, improved place that is already part of Greenfields Subdivision.

Fly higher, brothers and sisters!
