

Procrastination Is a Sin

By Adrian Rogers

*"Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin."
James 4:17*

Are you one of those people who believes, "Put off until tomorrow what you could do today"? This is one of those times when the fingers pointing back at me outnumber the one that's pointing to you! What am I talking about? Procrastination.

Did you know that procrastination is a sin?

I say that because sin is not merely doing wrong, it is failing to do what you ought to do.

Procrastination and disobedience are just different shades of the same sin.

I heard a quote once that said it well:

*When you have a job to do, begin this very hour.
You supply the will, God supplies the power.*

That is the "will-power" we need to instantly obey!

Has a certain task been hounding you? Confess your procrastination as sin. And act now; don't hesitate.

- Yesterday is gone.
- Tomorrow may never come.
- Today is the day!
