

Learning More About God and the Arts: The 2010 NCF Worship Workshop

Worship is God's purpose for all His creation, including the whole of humanity. As Christians, the meaning of worship must not be separate from our way of living.

And so, members and fellow worshippers in Novaliches Christian Fellowship delved deeper into its concept through a worship workshop held from March 31 to April 1 at NCF Main.

The activity tackled the significant elements of worship, from the very character of The God deserving our worship, to its when and how, up to the pitfalls. The speakers were veterans in NCF's worship team, such as Sis. Gigi Dantes and Julie Nueva, as well as Bros. Jonel Rubio, Jazz Guzman and Michael Dantes.

Attendees included worship leaders, both new and seasoned, dancers, members of the youth ministry, and many others who simply wanted to know more about the nature of praise and worship.

Members from NCF Banaba Chapter also participated, among them being Bro. Robert Balon, a member of the Banaba worship team, both as instrumentalist and as a worship leader.

He admits that, while he already heard of these teachings about worship, the seminar made him review and reflect on his life as a minister.

"I heard these lessons before, but it was still refreshing, and it helped me ponder on my own pitfalls in my Christian life," he said.

Truly, God's grace is found in them whose hearts of worship are not far from Him. The attendees hold on to what they have learned as they go forward to new heights in the Lord's service.
