

NCF Youth Fun Day

The afternoon of May 24 was what the NCF Youth dubbed “FUN DAY.” And it certainly was a fun day.

Right down until sunset, NCF Main’s Youth Group Clayhouse, hosting the event, was joined by nearby NCF Banaba’s God’s Young Servants (GYS) in a series of games of the ministry’s games fellowship, which began by 2:30 pm.

A set of five mind-bending, bone-crunching, and strangely mouth-watering games was prepared, thanks to Sis. Dana Palting and Joan Garcia. The battles ranged from relays to egg games, and of course, there was the notable human chess.

The congregation was divided into two groups, each being a healthy mix of young people from Clayhouse and GYS. This friendly competition, which beautifully reflected God-given energy to the youth, ended with the last relay of limes and flour, smearing their faces with power and ending with a victory for Group 1.

The day ended with a thanksgiving prayer and a sumptuous snack for each and everyone. Surely, God has blessed the day with so much fun.
