

NCF Awards Worker and Department of the Year

Last January 17, 2010 was the most awaited awarding of NCF's 2009 Worker and Department of the Year. All the winners of Worker of the Month last 2009 were the automatic nominees for Worker of the Year. They were Sisters Belle Figueras, Del Gagto, Dana Palting, Josie Malijao, Linda Garcia, Sofia Ga, Del Tan, Hannah Nueva, Jhoanne Garcia , Edith Dantes , Brothers Justy Guzman and Michael Dantes. After the voting the previous week, Sis. Dana Palting emerged as the big winner. Sis. Dana was teary-eyed in accepting the award. She is fondly called as the Worker for all Seasons because of her involvement in a lot of ministries.

For second consecutive year, the Ushering Department bagged the Department of the Year award. This places them on the Hall of Fame. The ushers were just as glad to have won the second time around.

The awarding was an encouragement to those who don't belong yet to any ministry to start serving the Lord. All the workers testified of the different joy they experience in giving back their talents for the work of God. Everyone is a winner when you do it for the Lord.

"He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest field. " (Luke 10:2 NIV)

